WELCOME TO KING EDWARD IN BERLIN

Streets Crowded at the Entrance of the English Sovereigns—Great Banquet To-night.

(Special from United Press.) Berlin, Feb. 8.—King Edward of England, accompanied by Queen Alexandra, made a triumphal entry into Berlin to-day, it being the first state visit of a British monarch to Berlin in nearly two centuries. Royalty and common people alike joined in a demonstration of welcome and for the slight movements of the German Socialists there was no outward show of anti-English feeling.

Many dignitaries of state were at the station to welcome the Royal Pair. When the King and Queen alighted the Kaiser embraced his Royal uncle and kissed him on both cheeks. There was a show of enthusiasm in the affair which made it hard to realize that the two monarchs had been for years pitted against each other in international politics and that they rankle with jealousy. King Edward kissed the hand of the Kaiser's Queen while the German ruler raised the gloved hand of Queen Alexandra to his lips.

The route lay through the Tiergarten, which was lined with German soldiers and members of the ancient guilds in their picturesque costumes. On leaving the Tiergarten the monarchs reached the Brandenburg Gate where Mayor Kierchhoff assisted by the aldermen and civil officials gave them a formal welcome. The royal coach then moved on.

There was grave fear early in the day lest a demonstration by the Socialists would mark the trip from the station to the Palace. Ten Socialist meetings were held before the King's arrival and were dismissed just as the procession started. The Socialists by the thousands joined the crowd in the streets and there were frequent Socialist cries, although no violence was attempted.

The German press is filled with news and editorials regarding the visit but there is an air of restraint in them. Most of the papers express the hope that the visit will result in a better feeling between the nations but several influential newspapers, including the "Frankfurter Zeitung," frankly admit that it is useless to try to gloss over the actual feeling by a show of friendliness that lacks reality. Public opinion here is not so optimistic regarding the situation. It is pointed out that the monarchs have met several times in recent years without result having been attained. This evening there will be a great state banquet at the Palace.

MAJOR ROOSEVELT WILL ATTEND THE SEASIDE CLUB BALL

Governor Lilley Accepts Invitation For Himself and His Staff.

Those who have the pleasure to attend the annual banquet of the Seaside Club on Feb. 13 will have the added pleasure of meeting Major Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., who is to come with Gov. Lilley and his staff. The ball promises to be the highest social event of any act of its day. Charles Mack, whom you should recall in both the above named pieces brings with him a vaudeville troupe of his own. The "Back to Erin," which comes next Monday afternoon and evening, and all true lovers of Irish plays should not overlook this event. Mr. Mack has surprised himself and his staff with a company of players, together with a carload of scenery. Mr. Mack's singing of the old Irish melodies and his vaudeville production, "The Slums of London," is probably the most pretentious of the vaudeville productions of the season. "The Slums" is beyond question one of the greatest comedy creations ever presented in this country.

"It Was Discouraging when the doctors told me they could do nothing for me because I had nothing to build on. My health and strength seemed so broken down there was no foundation. It was like trying to build a house on a bed of sand."

COUNT ELECTORAL VOTES TOMORROW

House and Senate Will Meet in Joint Session to Declare Election of President.

(Special from United Press.) Washington, Feb. 9.—To-morrow, at one o'clock, the count of the electoral vote for President and Vice-President will take place in the hall of the House of Representatives. This will be the first official declaration of the election of William Howard Taft and James Schoolcraft Sherman.

It will be a society affair almost exclusively. The public will not have an opportunity to witness the ceremony. All the galleries of the House have been reserved for the wives and friends of Senators and members of the family. The new degree team initiated three members, and the court received two applications.

The new degree team of Court Park City, F. of A., initiated two new members and the court received five applications.

Pioneer lodge, S. of St. G., received one application at its meeting and expects to initiate four members at its next meeting. The lodge denies that William H. Hopkinson was a member of this lodge, or that he has ever been connected with it.

Busy people who do not like to lose a day and those to whom time represents money all of them recommend Cyrus Plaster for Backache. Many of them have used this plaster and know from experience and many others have learned from their friends that Cyrus Plaster gives relief when others have failed. Twenty-five cents will save a day's pay. Cyrus Pharmacy, Fairfield Ave. and Courtland St.

THE THEATRES

SMITH'S.

A complete change of bill will be given this evening, in the great picture show which is holding the stage for these three days. Four new big reels of even finer pictures than those shown yesterday will be seen, and Mr. Green-spun will render two more of the latest and most charming popular illustrated songs of the day. The Saturday matinee will be again to-morrow afternoon and evening, with another complete change of bill. In the afternoon from 1:30 to 5, and in the evening from 7 to 10:30, are the hours when you like, and sit anywhere you choose, and all for next to nothing.

"Peck's Bad Boy," which will be seen Thursday afternoon and evening, has not been seen in this city in a long time, and it will be all the more welcome for that very reason. It is one of the biggest laughing shows on the road, and in the hands of the present company, is repeating everywhere the greatest success which it met with in former years. James H. Callahan will be seen in the title role, while John Marron, a comedian of exceptional merit, will be seen as the fat German grocer. The assisting cast is in every respect worthy, and the stage production is promised to be as excellent as any the piece has ever enjoyed. You will not regret spending your money if you fail to see "Peck's Bad Boy" on his present visit.

Friday and Saturday, with daily matinees, and at popular prices come Hal Reid's "The Shoemaker." During the progress of the play's four acts there is not a dull moment. The action is constant and plausible, and the plot is developed in an intelligent and natural manner. During the play's progress Mr. Welch will give in the second act a splendidly staged comedy of the most talked about and highly praised performer in vaudeville.

Do you remember Callahan and Mack in the "Old Neighborhood," a vaudeville act which stood in a class by itself? Then you also recall "Come Back to Erin," which also played in vaudeville, and received the highest salary of any act of its day. Charles Mack, whom you should recall in both the above named pieces brings with him a vaudeville troupe of his own. The "Back to Erin," which comes next Monday afternoon and evening, and all true lovers of Irish plays should not overlook this event. Mr. Mack has surprised himself and his staff with a company of players, together with a carload of scenery. Mr. Mack's singing of the old Irish melodies and his vaudeville production, "The Slums of London," is probably the most pretentious of the vaudeville productions of the season. "The Slums" is beyond question one of the greatest comedy creations ever presented in this country.

POLLY'S

A series of real tomfooleries is presented this week at Polly's, embracing some of the cleverest acts in the vaudeville. Karno's famous English pantomime, presented by fifteen speechless comedians, is the headliner and great attraction in scoring heavily. Karno's productions have never yet failed to "make good." The "Slums of London," this week's headline attraction, is probably the most pretentious of the vaudeville productions of the season. "The Slums" is beyond question one of the greatest comedy creations ever presented in this country.

Monie Mine, the dainty and charming English comedienne and songster, has come to this country for a limited run, and is the added feature to the people's playhouse this week. Bringing with her a series of the latest English story songs and dances, and a vaudeville production, "The Slums of London," she has scored a decided hit on several circuits, coming to Polly's with a record.

Conroy, LeMaire & Co., presenting their side-splitting comedy creation, "A King for a Night," is a genuine laugh hit on this week's bill. Conroy LeMaire & Co., are simply irresistible and they make you laugh until the tears come and your sides ache with shaking. One of the best features is "The Cuckoo's Nest," their vaudeville sketch, "A Baby Grand." Then Cartmell & Harris late of the Geo. M. Cohan hit, "Fifty Miles from Boston," pleases immensely in their singing and dancing number. John J. McCloskey, "The Cuckoo's Nest," is certainly a vocal artist. Mr. McCloskey is one of the most pleasing vocalists heard in this city. Melrose & Kennedy two Bridgeport boys present cleverly their comedy acrobatic act, in the opening number. The electrograph presents a series of interesting motion pictures.

CONCERT AT THE STRATFIELD.

The concert, lecture and dance at the Stratfield, on Saturday evening, Feb. 13, for the benefit of the new Maternity ward of the Bridgeport hospital, promises to be an enjoyable entertainment and an interesting social gathering. The program of the evening will be the soloist and Lieutenant Edward O'Flaherty, soldier, traveler and lecturer, will tell of his personal experiences in the Philippines during the time of the insurrection and during a recent visit to the islands. The lecture will be illustrated with finely colored views, the original of which were taken by the lieutenant himself in the Philippines. They are said to be the most beautiful tropical pictures ever exhibited on the American continent.

Mr. O'Flaherty has traveled extensively in the country of which he is to lecture. He has a picturesque personality and is an impressive speaker. He is full of stories of adventures and interesting facts, and has attracted a great deal of attention by his lectures. In the battle of San Juan, his Lieutenant O'Flaherty was severely wounded while leading the center platoon of the Sixteenth United States Infantry in the charge upon the blockhouse. He

ANNIVERSARY OF FREUNDSCHAFT REBEKAH LODGE

PRESENTATION TO MR. AND MRS. EBERLING IN HONOR OF GOLDEN WEDDING—OTHER PRESENTATIONS.

Freundschaft Rebekah lodge, No. 13, I. O. O. F., celebrated its 25th anniversary last night at Steuben Hall in grand style, at which most all of the members of the lodge were present. While the meeting was in progress Past Grand William Eberling and wife, and their children, and Attorney General, were called into an ante room.

Mr. and Mrs. Eberling celebrated their anniversary Friday, Feb. 5, in a very informal way at their home 1026 State street, they having been married in New York in 1889. The couple have three children and three grand children. The children are, Attorney General, William Eberling, Jr., Mrs. C. Kehr, of Rochester, N. Y., and Mrs. A. Connor of Bridgeport. The grandchildren are Albert Kehr of New York, Miss William Kehr and Fred Kehr of Rochester, N. Y.

While they were absent from the hall the members filed into two long lines and Past Grand Francis Gorman and Maria Miller acting as bridesmaids were sent to the ante room to escort the pair into the hall. They were preceded by Mrs. August Schoen-walter as maid of honor bearing the golden wreath. The couple were led through the file of the two lines and escorted to the noble grand chair where the maid of honor decorated them with the golden wreath. The Noble Grand, Mrs. Barbara Kausler, then in an original poem presented each with a twenty dollar gold piece. Each was then given a bouquet of flowers. The couple were then escorted to the ante room to be presented with two large decorated cakes, on one in large figures were 1889-1909, and the other was covered with emblems of prosperity. The former cake was presented by Special Deputy Mrs. Augusta Roth and the latter by Mrs. Margaret Baum.

After the supper a clipping party was enjoyed and a musical program ensued under the direction of the Misses Elizabeth Steinhmetz and Bertha Herman. A presentation was also made by Mrs. John Gorman, Mrs. Teresa Baumach to Miss Elizabeth Steinhmetz for last year's services as drill master in the shape of a gold handled silk umbrella on which the receiver's name was engraved. Miss Steinhmetz though taken by surprise replied very wittily. The officers of the lodge were in charge of the affair.

Don't let the baby suffer from eczema, sores or any itching of the skin. Doan's Ointment gives instant relief, cures quickly. Perfectly safe for children. All druggists sell it.

Litchfield County News.

Cigar in Overcoat Pocket. Mrs. Charles Vosburg, of Lime Rock was awakened one night recently by smoke in the house. She called Mr. Vosburg and on investigation found his overcoat burned to a crisp and another coat with one sleeve burned away, also overcoats and a rug. Nothing was injured. The stump of a cigar in the overcoat pocket was the cause.

Gifts to Hospitals. The estate of Alice A. Hall, who died in Colebrook, which was inventoried at $70,000 is being distributed. The Waterbury, Hartford, Norwalk and Stamford hospitals and Tribune Fresh Air societies received $5,000 each. Each will receive a check addendum later. Mrs. Hall left one-half of her estate to her husband with the request that at his death he leave it to the Litchfield County Hospital at Danbury. Mr. Hall has since married again.

Enough Witch Hazel. The manager of the witch hazel brush plant at Salisbury, has notified those who have been delivering brush there, to discontinue cutting. The plant will receive the brush which is already cut however. They have received notice from headquarters that the supply of brush on hand or which has been delivered at the various plants is sufficient for this season. The Salisbury plant will close when the stock on hand is used and will probably remain closed for a number of months.

Two Divorces Granted. Two divorces were granted by Judge Curtis at Winsted, Friday morning. Mrs. Harriet N. Blecher of Winsted was given a divorce from Frederick W. Blecher of Colebrook on the ground of desertion and was also given the custody of four minor children. The second case was that of Charles Drayton, Mrs. Annie Drake, both of New Hartford. De sertion was also the charge in this case.

Against Consolidation. A petition is being circulated in Litchfield protesting against the bill introduced in the Legislature which provides for the consolidation of the voting districts of the town of Barkhamsted. The town is at present divided into three voting districts, Barkhamsted Center, Riverton and Pleasant Valley, and Riverton people object to driving six miles from Riverton to Barkhamsted to vote.

Mail Contract Awarded. William W. Welton of Bridgewater, has been awarded the contract to carry the daily mail from New Milford, Bridge water and Roxbury Station for the four year term beginning July 1, 1909.
